Description

Villa with endless panoramic views of the Aegean Sea. The property is comprised of two separate buildings with unique architecture. Located in the prestigious settlement of Agios Ioannis Diakoftis, these luxurious villas have an identical floor plan and epitomize timeless elegance and sophistication. At just about 12-minute drive from the island's port and airport, with the added option of helicopter landing at Agios Ioannis Diakoftis. Strategically positioned near Mykonos town and the renowned beaches of Ornos and Saint John, the property provides easy access to these sought-after destinations, allowing you to fully embrace the essence of this captivating island paradise. Featuring two distinct villas, each with a remarkable architectural design capturing the Mediterranean charm. Both residences feature the same floor plan and boast a timeless interior style with white wooden beams, traditional arches, and kitchens equipped with white wooden cabinets and countertops. The first-floor suites offer large en-suite bathrooms and private balconies with pool views and breathtaking Aegean panoramas. Built in 2001, with a total area of 320 sqm spread across two levels, these villas offer six bedrooms and seven bathrooms, seamlessly blending traditional charm with modern amenities. The villas share exceptional outdoor spaces, including a large private pool and panoramic terraces designed for outdoor living and dining experiences. Additionally, two luminous guest rooms with en-suite bathrooms adjoin the main living areas. Double glazing and air conditioning ensure tranquility and comfort.
